2 April 2020

UPDATE #5

Dear Parents/Carers,

Once again, on behalf of all the staff, a very big thankyou for your support over the last few weeks.

Just a reminder that tomorrow is the last day of term for the students. Therefore, there will be no online learning next week.

The staff will be at school next week using this time to fine tune our online delivery so we can be even better prepared for the start of term 2 on Wednesday 29th April.

The care of those students who have no other arrangements will still continue next week, however, this will be supervision only.

Please let your child/ren know to check their school emails as their teachers are communicating with them through their emails and not always getting a response. Emails can be found in "Outlook" on the Office 365 page, the same place where "OneNote" is accessed.

I pray for a restful and blessed Easter break for all our families in these extraordinary times.

Stay safe and God bless
