INTENDED USE

This Code of Conduct is intended to be made available to the school's staff at the commencement of their employment (e.g. preferably around induction and training) and it is to be available and/or provided to staff during the course of their employment or involvement with the school and refreshed at the start of each school year. The Code forms comprehensive directions to these employees or other workers as to the expected standard of behaviour. This Code is intended to apply to all employees and contractors and volunteers in their work with the school.

DEFINITIONS:

Degrading punishment:

Any punishment which is incompatible with respect for human dignity, including corporal punishment and non-physical punishment which belittles, humiliates, denigrates, scapegoats, threatens, scares or ridicules the child.

Corporal punishment:

Any punishment in which physical force is used and intended to cause some degree of pain or discomfort, however light; typically involving hitting the child with the hand or with an implement; can also include, for example, forcing the child to stay in an uncomfortable position. It does not include the use of reasonable physical restraint to protect the child or others from harm: from UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, General Comment No. 8 (2006), paragraphs 11 and 15: CRC/C/GC/8, 2 March 2007.

Child abuse:

Four forms of child abuse are covered by WA law:

- 1) Physical abuse occurs when a child is severely and/or persistently hurt or injured by an adult or a child's caregiver.
- 2) Sexual abuse, in relation to a child, includes sexual behaviour in circumstances where:
 - a) the child is the subject of bribery, coercion, a threat, exploitation or violence;
 - b) the child has less power than another person involved in the behaviour; or
 - c) there is a significant disparity in the developmental function or maturity of the child and another person involved in the behaviour.
- 3) Emotional abuse includes:
 - a) psychological abuse; and
 - b) being exposed to an act of family or domestic violence.
- 4) Neglect includes failure by a child's parents/guardians to provide, arrange or allow the provision of:
 - a) adequate care for the child; or
 - b) effective medical, therapeutic or remedial treatment for the child

CODE OF CONDUCT

The aim of this Code is to outline the standards of behaviour expected of all employees at Hope Christian College. And to emphasis the safety and wellbeing of students is a priority objective and purpose of all staff.

This Code does not attempt to provide a detailed and exhaustive list of what to do in every aspect of your work. Instead, it sets out general expectations of the standards of behaviour required.

This Code of Conduct applies to all employees at Hope Christian College. Whether employed on a permanent, temporary or casual basis.

The Code places an obligation on all employees to take responsibility for their own conduct and to work with colleagues cooperatively to achieve a consultative and collaborative workplace where people are happy and proud to work.

WHO HAS TO COMPLY WITH THE CODE OF CONDUCT?

By accepting employment with the School, you must be aware of and comply with this Code.

Therefore, you must:

- (a) Conduct yourself, both personally and professionally in a manner that upholds the ethos and reputation of the School;
- (b) Comply with the School's policies and procedures;
- (c) Act ethically and responsibly; and
- (d) Be accountable for your actions and decisions.

CONTRACTORS AND VOLUNTEERS

Contractors, consultants and volunteers working with the School must be aware of this Code and conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the conduct described in it. Conduct that is not consistent with the conduct set out in this Code may result in the engagement of a contractor, consultant or volunteer being terminated.

GENERAL

This Code is not intended to be contractual in nature and does not impose any contractual obligations on the School. The School reserves the right at its sole discretion to vary or cancel this Code at any time.

Nothing in this Code should be taken to limit the circumstances in respect of which the School may take disciplinary action in respect of an employee.

I. WHAT IS EXPECTED OF YOU AS AN EMPLOYEE?

As an employee, you should be aware of the School's policies and procedures, particularly those that apply to your work. Most of these are available on the S Drive; others may be made available to you through induction and training and development programs. If you are uncertain about the scope or content of a policy with which you must comply, you should seek clarification from the Principal or Head of Department.

As a School employee, you are expected to:

- (a) Perform your duties to the best of your ability and be accountable for your performance;
- (b) Follow reasonable instructions given by your supervisor or their delegate;
- (c) Comply with lawful directions;
- (d) Carry out your duties in a professional, competent and conscientious manner, while seeking suitable opportunities to improve your knowledge and skills, including through participation in relevant professional development.
- (e) Act honestly and in good faith in fulfilling your duties;
- (f) Be courteous and responsive in dealing with your colleagues, students, parents and members of the public;
- (g) Work collaboratively with your colleagues;
- (h) Ensure that your conduct, whether during or outside working hours, is consistent with the ethos of the School and does not damage the reputation of the School.

2. WHAT HAPPENS IF I BREACH THE CODE OF CONDUCT?

As an employee at Hope Christian College, you hold a position of trust and are accountable for your actions.

- 2.1 The consequences of inappropriate behaviour and breaches of this Code will depend on the nature of the breach.
- 2.2 Employees should report possible breaches by colleagues to their supervisor or the Principal. If the possible breach is by their supervisor then it should be reported to the Principal. If the possible breach is by the Principal then it should be reported to the Chairman of the Board.
- 2.3 Factors the School may consider when deciding what action to take may include:
 - (a) The seriousness of the breach;
 - (b) The likelihood of the breach occurring again;
 - (c) Whether the employee has committed the breach more than once;
 - (d) The risk the breach poses to employees, students or any others; and
 - (e) Whether the breach would be serious enough to warrant formal disciplinary action.
- 2.4 Actions that may be taken by the School in respect of a breach of the Code include management or remedial action, training or disciplinary action ranging from a warning to termination of employment. The School will reserve the right to determine in its entirety the response to any breach of this Code.

Required Reporting

Employees are required to report certain information to the school.

- 2.5 As a School employee, you must report to the Principal, designated senior staff member or Chairman of the Board.
 - (a) Any concerns that you may have about the safety, welfare and well-being of a child or young person;
 - (b) Any concerns you may have about the inappropriate actions of any other employee, contractor or volunteer that involves children or young people;

- (c) Any concerns you may have about any other employee, contractor or volunteer. You must report objectively observable behaviour not permitted by the Code. Other than to Mandatory Reporting obligations, to the Principal or designated senior staff member, or to the Chairman of the Board of any allegation of objectively observable behaviour, that has been made to you;
- (d) If you become aware that an employee, contractor or volunteer has been charged with or convicted of an offence (including a finding of guilt without the court proceeding to a conviction) involving objectively observable behaviour not permitted by the Code. Other than to Mandatory Reporting obligations; and
- (e) If you become the subject of allegations of objectively observable behaviour not permitted by the Code, whether or not they relate to your employment in the School.

You should refer to the School's Child Protection Policy for further information about these obligations.

- 2.6 Please note that teachers and some other employees have mandatory reporting obligations. Where they have formed a belief on reasonable grounds in the course of their work, paid or unpaid, that a child or young person has been the subject of sexual abuse or is the subject of ongoing sexual abuse. You should refer to the School's Mandatory Reporting Policy for further information about these obligations.

3. RESPECT FOR PEOPLE

Hope Christian College expects employees to treat each other with respect and courtesy. Our daily interaction with others reflects on the School's reputation. Therefore, all employees are expected to be approachable, courteous and prompt in dealing with other people, including students, parents, other employees and members of the community.

- 3.1 Employees who work with students have a special responsibility in presenting themselves as appropriate role models for those students. Modelling effective leadership and respect in your interactions with students can have a profoundly positive influence on a student's personal and social development.
- 3.2 Similarly, it is important for you to treat your colleagues, other employees, contractors, students and parents with respect. Rude or insulting behaviour, including verbal and non-verbal aggression, abusive, threatening, intimidating or derogatory language and physical abuse or intimidation towards other employees, contractors, students and parents is unacceptable. You must not use information and communication technologies, such as email, mobile phones, text or instant messaging, blogs, social media sites and other websites to engage in this type of behaviour.

- 3.3 You must not discriminate against, or harass for any unlawful reason, or bully for any reason any employee, contractor, student or parent. Your obligations in this regard, including the list of unlawful reasons, are set out in the School's Behaviour Management Policy. Unlawful harassment or discrimination may constitute an offence under Racial Discrimination Act 1975, Sex Discrimination Act 1984, Disability Discrimination Act 1992 and Age Discrimination Act 2004. Staff should refer to the Australian Human Rights Commission's website for FAQs about these obligations: <https://www.humanrights.gov.au/our-work/legal/legislation>. Bullying may be a breach of your obligations under work health and safety legislation or your duty of care at common law.
- 3.4 You should ensure that you are aware of the School's Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying Policy. If you believe you are being unlawfully harassed or discriminated against or bullied:
- (a) Where you feel comfortable ask the person to stop, or make it clear that you find the behaviour offensive or unwelcome. It may be useful to speak with your supervisor or Head of Department in the first instance to seek guidance on how to do this; and/or
 - (b) Raise the issue as a grievance in accordance with the School's Behaviour Management Policy as soon as possible after the incident(s) have occurred.
- 3.5 The School takes reports of unlawful discrimination and harassment or bullying seriously and will consider action it considers appropriate if such conduct is found to have occurred including disciplining or dismissing offenders. Many incidents can be addressed effectively if reported early.
- 3.6 If you lie about or exaggerate a complaint, the School will view this as a very serious matter and you may be disciplined or dismissed

4. DUTY OF CARE AND HEALTH AND SAFETY

Duty of Care

As an employee at Hope Christian College, you have a duty of care to students in your charge to take all reasonable steps to protect students from risk of harm that can be reasonably predicted. The duty encompasses a wide range of matters, including but not limited to

- The provision of adequate supervision.
- Ensuring grounds, premises and equipment are safe for students use.
- Implementing strategies to prevent bullying from occurring in School.
- Providing medical assistance if competent to do so, or seeking assistance from a medically trained person to aid a student who is injured or becomes sick at School.

- 4.1 As a School employee, you have a duty of care to students in your charge. That duty is to take all reasonable steps to protect students from risks of harm that can be reasonably predicted. For example, risks from known hazards and from foreseeable risk situations against which preventative measures can be taken. The standard of care that is required, for example the degree of supervision, needs to be commensurate with the students' maturity and ability.
- 4.2 Duty of care to students applies during all activities and functions conducted or arranged by the School. The risks associated with any activity need to be assessed and managed before the activity is undertaken.
- 4.3 You should ensure that you are aware of the School's Policies on Duty of Care, Excursions and the School Sport Policy.

Work health and safety

- 4.4 You also have a responsibility under Work Health and Safety legislation to take care of your own health and safety at work. It is also your responsibility to ensure that your activities do not place at risk the health and safety of your co-workers, students or other persons that you may come into contact with at work.
- 4.5 Considerations of safety relate to both physical and psychological wellbeing of individuals.
- 4.6 You should ensure that you are aware of the School's Work Health & Safety Policy.

Supervision of students

- 4.7 You should take all reasonable steps to ensure that no student is exposed to any unnecessary risk of injury.
- 4.8 You should be familiar with and comply with the School's evacuation procedures.
- 4.9 Students should not be left unsupervised either within or outside of class. You should be punctual to class and allocated supervision.
- 4.10 You should remain with students at after school activities until all students have been collected. In the event that a student is not collected you should remain with the student until collected, or seek advice from your supervisor.
- 4.11 Playground supervision is an integral part of the responsibility of staff. It must take precedence over other activities. It is unacceptable to be late. You should actively supervise your designated area, being vigilant and constantly moving around.

4.12 You should be alert to bullying or any other form of discriminatory behaviour, and report incidents to the appropriate staff member. Additional detail about student bullying is set out in the Bullying Policy

4.13 Sick or injured students should be attended to by the supervising staff member. Should additional assistance be required you should contact the front office.

4.14 Professional relationships between employees and students

As a School employee, you are expected to always behave in ways that promote the safety, welfare and well-being of children and young people. You must actively seek to prevent harm to children and young people, and to support those who have been harmed. While not all employees are required to manage and supervise students, it is important for all School employees to understand and observe the School's child protection policies.

Supervision of students

4.15 You should avoid situations where you are alone in an enclosed space with a student. Where you are left with the responsibility of a single student you should ensure that this is in an open space in view of others. Where this is not possible or practical it should be discussed with your supervisor and/or the Principal.

4.16 You should never drive a student in your car unless you have specific permission from your supervisor and/or the Principal to do so. In the event of an emergency you should exercise discretion but then report the matter to your supervisor.

4.17 If you wish to conduct a private conversation with a student you should consider the time and venue carefully to avoid placing yourselves in a vulnerable situation. It is preferable to leave the door open. You should not locate yourself between the student and the door.

4.18 When confiscating personal items, such as mobile phones or hats, ask students to hand them to you. Only take items directly from students in circumstances where concern exists for the safety of the student or others and your own safety is not jeopardised by this action.

Physical contact with students

4.19 It is illegal for you to administer any form of corporal punishment and you may not use degrading punishments and the use of anything meeting the definition of child abuse as a punishment, in the course of your professional duties. The definition of degrading punishment is: Any punishment which is incompatible with respect for human dignity, including corporal punishment and non-physical punishment which belittles, humiliates, denigrates, scapegoats, threatens, scares or ridicules the child.

4.20 When physical contact with a student is a necessary part of the teaching/learning experience you must exercise caution to ensure that the contact is appropriate and acceptable. You should seek reassurance from the student by asking for a volunteer if necessary to demonstrate a particular activity.

- 4.21 Attention to the toileting needs of young children should be done with caution. It may be appropriate to have the door open. For students with a disability the management of toileting needs should be included in the student's individual management plan.
- 4.22 When congratulating a student, a handshake or pat on the shoulder are acceptable as long as the student is comfortable with this action. Kissing of students is not acceptable.
- 4.23 Assessing a student who is injured or ill may necessitate touching the student. Always advise the student of what you intend doing and seek their consent.
- 4.24 Sometimes in ensuring duty of care you may be required to restrain a student from harming him or herself or others using reasonable force. Any such strategy must be in keeping with the School's behaviour management practices or individual student management plans. You should report and document any such incidents.

Relationships with students

- 4.25 You must not have a romantic or sexual relationship with a student. It is irrelevant whether the relationship is homosexual or heterosexual, consensual or non-consensual or condoned by parents or caregivers. You are reminded of:
- (a) The law prohibiting sexual relations with a person under the age of consent (16 years); and
 - (b) The law prohibiting sexual relations between a teacher and their student under the age of 18 years.
- 4.26 You must not develop a relationship with any student that is, or that can be interpreted as having a personal rather than a professional interest in a student. An overly familiar relationship with any student (including any adult student) that you are responsible for teaching, tutoring, advising, assessing, or for whom you provide pastoral or welfare support raises serious questions of conflict of interest, trust, confidence, dependency, and of equality of treatment. Under no circumstances are you to share telephone numbers with a student. Such relationships may also have a negative impact on the teaching and learning environment for other students and colleagues, and may carry a serious reputational risk for the School.
- 4.27 If you consider that a student is being overly familiar, seeking to establish a personal relationship with you or has developed a 'crush' on you, you should report your concerns to your supervisor and/or the Principal as soon as possible so that a plan can be developed to manage the situation effectively and sensitively.
- 4.28 At all times when speaking with students, care must be taken to use appropriate language. You must always treat students with respect and without favouritism. There is no place for demeaning sarcasm, derogatory remarks, inappropriate familiarity or offensive comments.

4.29 You may, as part of your pastoral care role, engage in discussion with students. This is entirely appropriate. However you must be cautious about making personal comments about a student or asking questions that probe your own or a student's sexuality or relationships. You must not hold conversations with a student of an intimately personal nature where you disclose information about yourself.

4.30 You must not:

- (a) Invite students to your home;
- (b) Visit students at their home; or
- (c) Attend parties or socialise with students and all of the above, unless you have the express permission of the Principal and their parents or care giver.

4.31 You must not engage in tutoring or coaching students from the School outside of school hours, without the express permission of the Principal.

4.32 You must not invite students to join your personal electronic social networking site or accept students' invitations to join their social networking site (see Section 6 - Appropriate use of electronic communication and social networking sites).

4.33 You must not give gifts to individual students. You should also carefully consider your position before accepting any gift from a student (see Section 9 - Declaring gifts, benefits and bribes)

4.34 Wherever practical, you should avoid teaching or being involved in educational decisions involving family members or close friends. Where it is not practical to avoid such situations completely, another member of staff should make any significant decisions relating to the student's assessments and have those endorsed by a supervisor.

4.35 You should be aware of, and sensitive to, children with culturally diverse or indigenous backgrounds and cultural practices that may influence the interpretation of your behaviour.

Child protection

4.36 You must be aware of and comply with the School's Child Protection Policy.

5 APPROPRIATE USE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION AND SOCIAL NETWORKING SITES

The School provides electronic communication facilities for its students and employees for educational or administrative purposes. It monitors and views data stored or transmitted using the School's facilities. By its nature, electronic communication is a fast and informal way of communicating. However, once a document or image has been sent there is no way to recall it and it exists forever.

This includes:

- (a) Exercising good judgment when using electronic mail, following the principles of ethical behaviour;
- (b) Using appropriate and professional language in electronic mail messages;
- (c) Being aware that if an issue addressed in an email becomes the subject of a legal dispute, then those emails would be discoverable: that is, the court and all parties to the dispute would be entitled to see them;
- (d) Not sending messages that are harassing, discriminatory, defamatory, threatening, abusive or obscene;
- (e) Not inviting students into your personal social networking site or accept an invitation to theirs;
- (f) Not using social networking sites to email or contact students;
- (g) Remembering transmission, storage, promotion or display of offensive, defamatory, or harassing material is strictly forbidden; and
- (h) Reporting any situations where you become aware of the inappropriate use of electronic communication and social networking sites.

5.15 You must never use the School's networks to view, upload, download or circulate any of the following materials:

- (a) Sexually related or pornographic messages or material;
- (b) Violent or hate-related messages or material;
- (c) Racist or other offensive messages aimed at a particular group or individual;
- (d) Malicious, libellous or slanderous messages or material; or
- (e) Subversive or other messages or material related to illegal activities.

6 USE OF ALCOHOL, DRUGS AND TOBACCO

Work Health and Safety is of fundamental importance to the School. Maintaining a safe work environment requires everyone's continuous cooperation.

6.15 You are responsible for ensuring your capacity to perform your duties is not impaired by the use of alcohol or drugs and that the use of such substances does not put at risk you or any other person's health and safety.

6.16 As a School employee, you must:

- (a) Not attend work under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs or non-prescribed and/or restricted substances;
- (b) Not consume alcohol, illegal drugs or non-prescribed and/or restricted substances while at work;
- (c) Notify your supervisor if you are aware that your work performance or conduct could be adversely affected as a result of the effect of a prescribed drug;
- (d) Take action to resolve any alcohol or other drug-related problems that you have; and
- (e) Consult with your supervisor or Principal if you are concerned about working with other employees who may be affected by drugs or alcohol.

Drugs

6.17 As a School employee, you must not:

- (a) Have illegal drugs in your possession while at work. Any illegal drugs found on School property or in the possession of any person on School property may result in disciplinary action including the termination of your employment and referral to the Police;
- (b) Give students or other employees illegal drugs or restricted substances, or encourage or condone their use; and
- (c) Supply or administer prescription or non-prescription drugs to students unless authorised to do so.

Alcohol

6.18 You must not take alcohol to School or consume it during School hours.

6.19 You must not:

- (a) Purchase alcohol for, or give alcohol to, any School student (or to any other person under the age of 18 years); and
- (b) Encourage or condone the use of alcohol by students of any age during educational activities.

Tobacco/Vaping

6.20 You must not smoke/vape or permit smoking/vaping in any School buildings, enclosed area or on School grounds. This includes all buildings, gardens, sports fields, cars and car parks.

6.21 You must not purchase tobacco or tobacco products for any School student, or give them tobacco or tobacco products.

7 IDENTIFYING AND MANAGING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Private interests can, or have the potential to, influence a person's capacity to perform their duties and in turn compromise their integrity and that of the School.

7.15 As a School employee, you must not act in conflict with the School's best interests. A conflict of interests can involve:

- (a) Pecuniary interests i.e. financial gain or loss or other material benefits;
- (b) Non-pecuniary interests i.e. favours, personal relationships and associations.

It may not only be about your own interests. It may include:

- (a) The interests of members of your immediate family or relatives (where these interests are known);
- (b) The interests of your own business partners or associates, or those of your workplace; or
- (c) The interests of your friends.

7.16 When faced with a situation in which conflict of interests may be present, you should report any potential or real conflict to your supervisor or the Principal.

7.17 You should also report situations where a superior or colleague who has an identified conflict is, or may be perceived as, unduly influencing your decision.

8 DECLARING GIFTS, BENEFITS AND BRIBES

As an employee, you may be offered a gift or benefit as an act of gratitude. There are some circumstances when to refuse a gift would be perceived to be rude, insulting or hurtful. You are expected to exercise sound judgment when deciding whether to accept a gift or benefit.

- 8.15 If you are offered a bribe (i.e. anything given in order to persuade you to act improperly), you must refuse it, explain why it is not appropriate, and immediately report the matter to the Principal.
- 8.16 Accepting gifts and other benefits has the potential to compromise your position by creating a sense of obligation and undermining your impartiality. It may also affect the reputation of the School and its staff. You must not create the impression that any person or organisation is influencing the School or the decisions or actions of any of its employees.
- 8.17 If you are offered a gift or benefit, you should always consider the value and purpose of a gift or benefit before making any decision about accepting it. A gift that is more than nominal value ($50) must not become personal property. You should either politely refuse it or advise the contributor that you will accept it on behalf of the School.
- 8.18 When such a gift is accepted, you must advise your Principal. They will determine how it should be treated and make a record of its receipt. Depending on the nature and value of the gift, it may be appropriate to record the gift in the asset register as a donation or other such record established for that purpose.
- 8.19 Sometimes employees might, in the course of their work, win a prize of significant monetary value e.g. a computer, from another organisation. Prizes are usually considered the property of the School. If you win a prize you must advise your supervisor or the Principal who will determine how the prize should be treated and recorded.

9 COMMUNICATION AND PROTECTING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Communication

- 9.15 You should be mindful of confidentiality when in discussions with parents. You cannot provide a guarantee of confidentiality if the matter under discussion requires mandatory reporting.
- 9.16 You should not disclose personal information about another staff member to students or parents or discuss their work performance, except if authorised by the Principal in the context of grievance resolution.
- 9.17 All matters discussed in staff meetings and staff memos are to be treated confidentially and not discussed with students, members of the school community, or the public.

9.18 The media should not be given access to students or allowed entry to the School without the express permission of the Principal. You should not make any comments to the media about the School, students or parents without the express permission of the Principal.

Confidential information

9.19 As a School employee, you must only use confidential information for the work-related purpose it was intended.

9.20 Unless authorised to do so by legislation, you must not disclose or use any confidential information without the express permission of the Principal.

9.21 You must make sure that confidential information, in any form, cannot be accessed by unauthorised people.

Privacy

9.22 Sensitive and personal information should only be provided to people, either within or outside the School, who are authorised to have access to it.

9.23 You should always exercise caution and sound judgment in discussing the personal information of students, parents, staff and other people with other School employees. Normally information should be limited to those who need to know in order to conduct their duties, or to those who can assist in carrying out the School's work because of their expertise.

9.24 The code of conduct assures protection from victimisation, discrimination or other adverse consequences to employees when reports are made in good faith.

10 RECORD KEEPING

10.15 All employees have a responsibility:

- (a) To create and maintain full, accurate and honest records as required by the School, and
- (b) To capture or store records in the School's record systems.

10.16 You must not destroy or remove records without appropriate authority. This includes but not limited to emails on the School computers.

10.17 Supervisors have a responsibility to ensure that the employees reporting to them comply with their records management obligations.

10.18 Employees responsible for assessing and recording marks for students' work must do so accurately, fairly and in a manner that is consistent with relevant policy and the requirements of the School.

- 10.19 Employees must maintain the confidentiality of all official information and documents which are not publicly available or which have not been published.

11 COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 11.15 When creating material you need to ensure the intellectual property rights of others are not infringed and information is recorded about any third party copyright/other rights included in materials.
- 11.16 Advice relating to sharing or licensing the School's intellectual property should be sought from the Principal.
- 11.17 The School cannot give away or assign its intellectual property without the approval of the Principal.
- 11.18 If you develop material that relates to your employment with the School, the copyright in that material will belong to the School. This may apply even if the material was developed in your own time or at home.
- 11.19 You should not use the School's intellectual property (including copyright) for private purposes without obtaining written permission from the Principal.

12 RECORD KEEPING

A file is kept in the Principal's office, detailing any breach of this policy or any breach of the Staff Code of Conduct. Details of any alleged breach and the outcomes will be kept in this file.
